FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE April 30, 2007

Mayor Sanders Nominates Clyde L. Fuller for Appointment to the Ethics Commission

San Diego – Mayor Jerry Sanders has nominated Clyde L. Fuller for appointment to the Ethics Commission, pending City Council confirmation. Mr. Fuller is a respected community leader with a long track record of professional and civic commitment. He is retired as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In his 27 years of service with the FBI, Mr. Fuller investigated white-collar crime and created a task force including attorneys, investigators and auditors from US Attorneys Office, FBI, Secret Service, SEC, Goldman Sachs, and others, to investigate the largest three bank failures in U.S. history. Prior to his service with the FBI, Mr. Fuller was an officer in the United States Navy.

Mr. Fuller is a resident of Council District 2 and has maintained a number of community and civic commitments over the years including: Chairing Beachfest for 5 years which is an annual alcohol-free, family-friendly community event designed to help create a favorable impression of Pacific Beach; Chairing the U.S. National Lifeguard Championships in 2000 and 2002; Serving on the boards of Governance of local San Diego elementary, middle school and high schools; Working with San Diego City Council and San Diego Unified School District Board officials to successfully fund and build a joint-use public softball park; and Chairing a YMCA group studying the possibility of building a YMCA in Pacific Beach. Mr. Fuller was also honored by the San Diego Lifeguard Association by being named "Citizen of the Year" in 2000.

Mr. Fuller will assume the unexpired term of former Commissioner April Riel, who has resigned, for a term ending June 30, 2009. Mr. Fuller is a registered Republican and his experience as a candidate for public office meets the necessary eligibility criteria for this post.
